

PLAN A PARADE FOR LABOR DAY

Tri-City Socialists Will Observe International Holiday Next Sunday.

MEET AT INDUSTRIAL HALL

May 1 Generally Set Aside as Holiday but Sunday is Elected Here for Convenience.

The International Labor day will be celebrated by the socialists of the tri-cities in a fitting manner Sunday, May 1. The members will meet at the industrial hall, and a parade will leave that building promptly at 2 o'clock. The parade will proceed north on Twentieth street to Second avenue, west to Fourteenth street, south to Third avenue and east on Third avenue to the industrial hall.

An interesting program has been arranged for the gathering at the hall for the afternoon. John C. Gibson, editor of the Rock Island County Socialist, and M. L. Merrill will be the main speakers. The Forward Singing society of Davenport will furnish the musical end of the program.

Change Day Here. The socialists all over the country observe International Labor day on May 1, but the date here was changed to Sunday so that none of the members would have to leave their work to attend. The original intention was to have a band in the parade, but the city ordinance forbids this.

SCHIEBERL LEAVES FOR A CAMPAIGN IN MONTANA

"Peanuts" Schieberl, the Rock Island featherweight, left yesterday to campaign in Montana for several months. Clifford has three matches already signed up and expects to be kept busy during his entire stay in the northwest. He will visit in Milwaukee for several days before leaving for Montana.

OLD SOLDIER TELLS OF HIS EXPERIENCE

HAD DOUBLE DISTINCTION OF SERVING UNDER BOTH WALLACE AND GRANT IN THE CIVIL WAR.

Here is an old soldier who has the double distinction of having served under Gen. Lew Wallace and also under Gen. U. S. Grant. Mr. J. H. Williams, who lives at 3215 Morgan street in St. Louis, during the three months of the war was in the 11th Indiana infantry under Gen. Lew Wallace. He later joined the 21st Illinois infantry. The colonel of this regiment was U. S. Grant who later became general. Mr. Williams said:

"I have been taking your Plant Juice for nervousness, general debility and low vitality as well as all ailments of the stomach, kidneys, liver, nerves and blood. Plant Juice is the best to be found. It revitalizes and tones up the entire system. If you suffer with indigestion, biliousness, gas, bloating after meals, sour stomach, no appetite, poor circulation, headaches, dizzy spells, spots before the eyes, pains across the back and in the joints, sleepless and wake up tired in the mornings with no energy for the day's work try Plant Juice. For sale at the Ballard Drug & Dental Co., 106 West Second street in Davenport. The Harper House pharmacy in Rock Island; E. Jericho & Co., Moline.—(Adv.)

"All is Well That Ends Well"

Along with dyspepsia comes nervousness, sleeplessness and general ill health. Why? Because a disordered stomach does not permit the food to be assimilated and carried to the blood. On the other hand, the blood is charged with poisons which come from this disordered digestion. In turn, the nerves are not fed on good, red blood and we see those symptoms of nervous breakdown. It is not hard work that does it, but poor stomach work. With poor thin blood the body is not protected against the attack of germs of grip—bronchitis—consumption. Fortify the body now with

LOCAL SURGEON IS READY FOR SERVICE

Dr. J. R. Hollowbush.

Dr. J. R. Hollowbush of Rock Island is one of the 135 physicians in Illinois, members of the medical relief corps formed by President Roosevelt in 1907, in receipt of the following letter from the war department at Washington:

"To All Officers of the Medical Reserve Corps (inactive duty):

"Subject: Availability of officers of the medical reserve corps for active service.

"In view of possible contingencies and in order that this office may be well informed in advance and prepared to meet these contingencies, should occasion arise, it is requested that you indicate below, in case you desire to accept active duty, in which of the classes named you wish to be considered.

"First—Are you ready to accept active duty in your home, city, or its immediate vicinity, should occasion arise?

"Second—Are you ready to accept active duty at camps of mobilization, where recruits will be examined?

"Third—Are you ready to accept active duty in army hospitals in the United States or elsewhere?

"Fourth—Are you ready to accept active duty with troops in the field?

"Fifth—How soon after receiving notice that your services are desired can you leave your home?

"W. C. GORGAS, Surgeon General."

Dr. Hollowbush, whose title is that of Lieutenant, has answered that he is in readiness to respond whenever his country calls him.

MEANS BUSINESS IN ITS CAMPAIGN

Detroit Commercial Club to Send Delegation to Toledo to Get M. W. A. Offices.

Members of the Detroit Commercial club and citizens of that city will attend the head camp of Modern Woodmen of America to be held at Toledo June 16 in an effort to have the head offices of the order moved from Rock Island to Detroit by the convention's action.

P. O. Van Galder, editor of the Modern Woodman, said today that E. J. Bullard, state deputy for the order in Michigan, told him of Detroit's plans when he was in Toledo last week to complete convention arrangements.

Mr. Bullard said Detroit had a reputation for getting what it wanted after.

At this time Detroit, Indianapolis and Kansas City are actively in the fight to get the head offices. Detroit is now far in advance of the other two cities as a bidder for the offices.

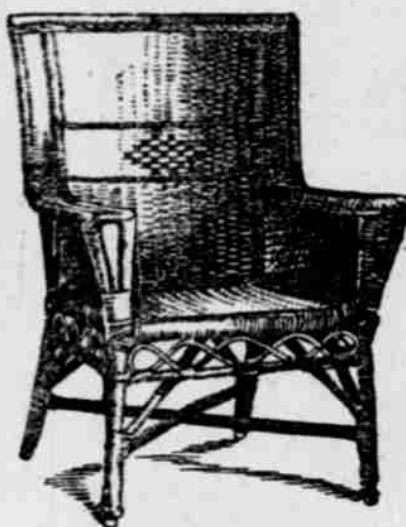

Head camp plans are now complete. Hotel reservations have been made by the head office for 133 head officers, committeemen, medical advisers and those for whom reservations were made by special request.

UNION IS OPPOSED BY ROCKEFELLER

Son of Oil King Gives Reasons for Refusing to Intervene in Colorado Strike.

New York, April 29.—John D. Rockefeller Jr., last night issued a statement defining the position he, as a director of the Colorado Fuel and Iron company, had taken in regard to the mine strike now in progress in Colorado.

The statement refers to an interview had yesterday with Congressman Foster of Illinois, who acted as President Wilson's personal representative in an effort to settle the strike amicably.

Mr. Rockefeller's statement, in part, follows: "We pointed out to Mr. Foster that, of the many coal companies in southern Colorado, we were interested solely and as minority stockholders in the Colorado Fuel and Iron company, which controls only about one-third of the output of that state."

"After a long and full discussion of the question in all its aspects, Mr. Foster was unable to make any suggestion which did not involve the unionizing of the mines or the submission of that question to arbitration."

"We showed that all of the points which are claimed to be at issue, with the exception of unionizing the camps, the Colorado Fuel and Iron company had voluntarily granted to its employees long before the strike was called or talked of."

The points enumerated are the eight hour day, semi-monthly pay, right of miners to employ check weighmen, no discrimination against employees who trade at other than the company's stores, voluntary increase in wages last year amounting to $550,000 a year.

"In addition to the above, the only matter which has been raised by the union is the unionizing of the company's camp," the statement continues. "On this question of the open shop, namely, the right of every American citizen to work on terms satisfactory to himself without securing the consent of the union, I reiterated to Mr. Foster what I said in my examination before the committee on mines and mining in Washington a few weeks ago—that we regard this as a matter of principle, which could not be arbitrated."

"In reply to his request for some suggestion as to how the strike could be terminated we said to Mr. Foster that if the president would make a public statement that the federal troops were being sent to Colorado for the purpose of enforcing obedience to the law and securing to every citizen the right guaranteed to him by the constitution to be protected in his life and liberty, whether he chooses to work as a member of a union or not, it would go far to terminate the deplorable conditions which now exist."

"The effort has been made to place the responsibility for the continuation of this strike upon us as individual owners of stock in one of the mining companies involved. The only point at issue, so far as the Colorado Fuel and Iron company is concerned, is that of unionizing, and unionizing at the behest, not of employees, less than 10 per cent of whom were union men, but at the demand of an outside body. This, as I have said, is a matter of principle which we could not accede or arbitrate."

"In order to correct an impression which seems to have gained currency I desire to restate what was fully stated in the congressional examination—namely: our position with reference to organized labor."

"We do not question the right of any workmen to freely associate themselves in unions for the furtherance of their common and legitimate interests, but we do assert the equal right of an individual to work independently of a union if he so elects. We are contending against the right of unions to impose themselves upon an industry by force, by assault and murder, and not against the right of men to organize for their mutual benefit."

"The impression has been created that if we would agree to submit to the unionizing of the camps of the Colorado Fuel and Iron company this entire trouble would be ended. The public generally does not seem to consider whether or not this is a right or a fair demand and in the interest of the employees of the company as a whole."

"What would become of the great majority of its workers were such surrender to be made? All of its loyal nonunion employees, numbering several thousands, more than 90 per cent of the total number employed in the mines, who have been faithful and true to its interests would be thrown out of employment unless willing to submit as individuals to union dictation. Is it the spirit of American fair play which is asking such ruthless disregard of the interests of honest men, or is it the spirit of partisanship and self-seeking?"

"But the issue is not one of merely local importance. It affects every workingman throughout the land. The fact that labor unions represent but a small minority of the workers of the entire country seems to be lost sight of by those who urge the termination of this local difficulty at the price of surrender to union domination. Surely no thinking man can ask, much less expect, that we will abandon our own employees and the cause of the workers of the entire country because violence and wholesale slaughter are brought about by an element which has come to regard itself as above and beyond the reach of the law."

"Are the labor unions, representing a small minority of the workers of the country, to be sustained in their disregard of the inalienable right of every American citizen to work without interference whether he be a union or a non-union man? Surely the vast majority of American citizens will, without fear or favor, stand for even handed justice under the constitution and equal rights for every citizen."

"But there is a final aspect of this grave matter which deserves more than all else the attention of the American public in this crisis. Whether the Colorado Fuel and Iron company and the other operators have been wholly free from blame or not in the present controversy, the issue now to be decided is whether the state, or failing the state, the nation, shall make good the constitutional guarantee of law and order."

"At the present moment in Colorado funds are being openly raised and citizens are being armed with the avowed purpose of resisting the authorities of the state. Since that issue of resistance to constituted authority is raised, it is unthinkable that the Colorado Fuel and Iron company or any of the companies operating in the state should be asked to yield its position on a preliminary and now extraneous matter of dispute as the price of securing the withdrawal of forces armed to combat their own government."

ODD FELLOWS HOME FROM SESSION AT IOWA CITY

The delegation of 20 local Odd Fellows, who attended the celebration of the 95th anniversary of the founding of the order at Iowa City, returned home last evening, after spending a pleasant day in the college city. The city was filled with prominent members of the order from all over the middle west. The local members made the trip in a special train from Davenport.
